Creating an Inclusive and Supportive Online
Learning Environment

ACE

This offering equips instructors with research-based practices to ensure all students experience a strong start and achieve success throughout the semester. Faculty learn strategies to set and maintain a positive tone, support students in meeting high expectations, conduct formative checks for understanding, and offer actionable feedback students can use to improve.

LEARNING MODULES

Welcoming Students to Online Learning

Ensuring Equitable Access to Online Learning

Embracing Diversity in Online Learning

Providing Useful Feedback for Online Learning

Engaging Learning Design

ACUE faculty experience an asynchronous learning design that aligns with the best practices in effective online instruction and is compelling to both new and seasoned instructors. Each week, with support from a skilled facilitator, faculty will be:

- Engaging in authentic demonstrations of effective teaching
- Learning from nationally recognized experts
- Collaborating with colleagues in facilitated discussions
- Implementing new teaching practices and observing student impact
- Writing structured reflections, including plans to continually refine their practice

Stackable Credentials to Maximize Impact

Faculty who complete this microcredential earn a digital badge to share their professional achievement. By completing three additional microcredential offerings in ACUE’s Effective Online Teaching Practices course, instructors will be awarded the only Certificate in Effective College Instruction endorsed by the American Council on Education (ACE).

“The most important thing for any instructor is that relationships matter. And the perception that you care is the primary issue of teaching. When you’re teaching online, it matters just as much.”
